

CURATOR

The Museum Journal

Acknowledgments

Curator: The Museum Journal is the only interdisciplinary peer-reviewed publication devoted to the concerns of the museum community. We take this opportunity to express our special thanks to the members of the editorial board for their friendship and support. We also thank them for their critical reviews of manuscripts and the helpful advice they have provided to many authors. Besides the members of the editorial board, many others have given unstintingly of their time and expertise to review the increasingly diverse articles we receive. We are especially grateful to reviewers of articles in the Special Issue on Science, who responded with speed and conscientiousness under tight deadlines.

To all our reviewers, we extend our deep gratitude. Our authors and our readers appreciate the high standards we achieve through your participation. To our readers and subscribers, we offer our thanks for your interest and continued support.

We would also like to thank the staff at Wiley-Blackwell, Curator's publisher for Volume 53. Working with them has been effortless and wonderfully fruitful during the past year.
